

Our topic this half term is 'Brazil'.

Week 1 homework: Research 5 facts about Brazil and write them neatly in your book. Can you draw a picture which shows one of these facts?

Week 2 homework: What do you know about the Brazilian football team? Research 5 facts about the Brazilian football team and draw its football kit.

Week 3 homework: Research 5 facts about the slums in Brazil. For extra points, can you find out the two other names that are used instead of 'slums'.

Week 4 homework: Find out about the famous carnival in Brazil and write two sentences about it. Then, design your own carnival mask.

Week 5 homework: What is 'Christ the Redeemer'? Please explain to me what it is and where you can find it. Please write down any other facts that you can find. Can you draw it for extra points?

Week 6 homework: Write a paragraph about a famous person that comes from Brazil. Can you draw them?

Week 7 homework: What is the difference between living in England and living in Brazil? Please draw a line down your page and draw a picture of life in Brazil and a picture of life in England so that I can understand the difference.

Week 8 homework: Using everything that you have learnt this half term, create an acrostic poem about Brazil:

Remember, Miss Reynolds will be looking at presentation, so try your best with neatness and colouring.

This homework is due in on Wednesday 11th December 2019
